

Discussion for a movie night: Enjoy the film. Afterwards, here are some discussion questions that might help you to engage with your kids about the film.

Enjoy the time engaging with the film, your faith, friends and family.

What parents should know about Jungle Beat: The Movie

Parents and guardians have little to be worried about with Jungle Beat: The Movie. By maintaining the instructional object lessons from the show, children will be encouraged to build better friendships, ask for help and see the value in getting hugs from friends and family. If you are hoping for ground-breaking cinema, that is asking too much of this film. The adventures with Munki and friends is meant to be a safe and entertaining option for those with little children. Who knows, children and adults may even learn something in the process.

Find review of Jungle Beat: The Movie @ reeldialogue.com

Family talking points

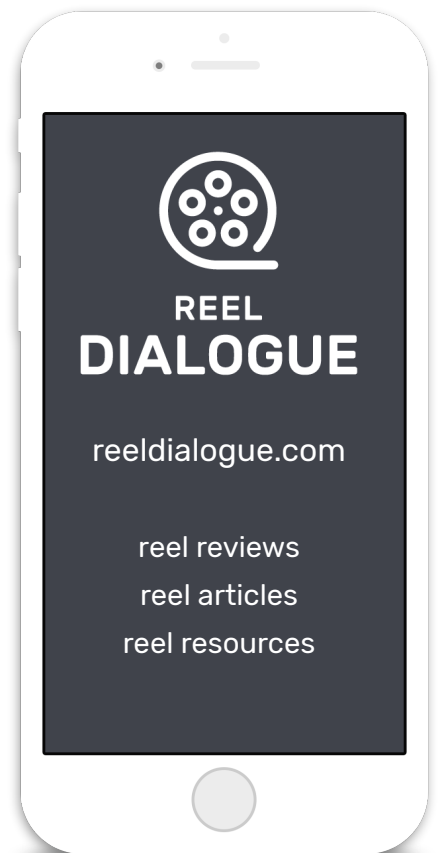

1. Who was your favourite character in the movie? What did you like about them?
2. Did you learn anything from Jungle Beat? How can you do this tomorrow at home or school?
3. Munki and Trunk talk about being friends quite a bit. Who is your best friend? Do you think the Bible says anything about being friends?

Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. John 15:13

4. One thing that Fneep seems to have a hard time doing is asking for help. Is there anything you need help with at school or home?

“Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.” Matthew 7:7

5. Would you like a hug? Who is it okay to get hugs from?

‘A hug is like a boomerang – you get it back right away.’ ~Bill Keane, "Family Circus"