Film Synopsis

have been part of the destruction of key cities on most of the world's continents. In their defence, they have been on the right side of justice in each battle. Even with the right intentions of saving the world, innocent lives have been lost in the crossfire of the fight. In their latest excursion to keep the people of the world safe, an accident occurs in Nigeria and innocent bystanders once again lose their lives. The governments of the world unite and desire to strike an accord with the Avengers to come under a new level of accountability. With a few days to consider the implications of this decision, a major rift occurs in the team over this pact with the United Nations and battle lines are drawn amongst the superhero squad. With Captain America / Steve Rogers (Chris Evans) on one side and Iron Man / Tony Stark (Robert Downey Jr.) opposing the star-spangled avenger, a familiar threat to the stability of the world peace comes to their attention and the masked marvels must decide which side they will align with in this clash of the titans
